Dear Parents & Guardians,

Late this morning, the Sterling Heights and Warren Police Departments directed Black Elementary (Sterling Heights) and Wilde Elementary (Warren) to lock in place due to a police situation near the schools.

In accordance with our security & crisis protocols, our school resource officers were sent to each school to provide additional support until the order from both police departments was lifted a short time later.

I commend our staff and students for following our protocols, which kept our schools safe. If you have any questions, please contact your child's school.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Livernois, Ph.D.
Superintendent
